

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

|                               |                                                                    |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Body Dimensions        | 260 x 213 x 1007 (height) mm                                       |
| Body Material - Finish | Galvanised steel – electrostatic powder coated                     |
| Body Color             | Melon (RAL 1028)                                                   |
| Interior Access        | By locked lid                                                      |
| Net Passage Width      | Up to 4.0 mt.                                                      |
| Boom Material          | Aluminium                                                          |
| Boom Color             | White (RAL 9010)                                                   |
| Power Supply           | 230 V AC 60/50 Hz. (%±10)                                          |
| Consumption            | 300 W                                                              |
| Absorption             | 15A                                                                |
| Torque                 | 200 Nm                                                             |
| Type of Operation      | Electromechanical                                                  |
| Installation Direction | Left – Right adjustable                                            |
| Speed                  | 2 - 6 sec.                                                         |
| Manual Control         | By release lock                                                    |
| Operating Temperature  | -20°C/+55°C (Opt.. -50°C with heater positive), %95 non-condensing |

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

|                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| IP Rating               | IP 54, outdoor                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Net Weight              | ~47 kg (excl boom)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Options and Accessories | Safety Sensor (photocell), loop detector, flashing light, light bulb for arm, traffic light, fixed rest, swing rest, boom joint, painted aluminium skirt, rubber shock-proof edges, wireless remote control (receiver&transmitter), manual control button, red reflective sticker for arm (pack of 24pcs). |

Design and specifications are subject to change without notice.